Cookie configurator

You can access the cookie configurator at any time from the banner or the cookie configurator available on the website.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded onto devices when accessing certain websites, platforms or applications, to store and retrieve information while the user accesses their content.

Cookies can serve very diverse purposes, such as recognising the user, obtaining information about the user's browsing habits, or personalising the way in which content is displayed to the user.

Which cookies are used on this website?

This website uses only first-party technical cookies, which are exempt from the requirement of obtaining the user's prior consent, as they only allow communication between the user's device and the network and/or the provision of the service requested by the user. They are listed below as an exercise of informative transparency:

Name	Who uses the cookies?	Type	Purposes	Duration
wordpress_test_cookie	PROVETSA	Technical	Checks whether the user's browser accepts cookies, to ensure the correct functioning of the website.	Deactivated when the website is closed.
wordpress_logged_in_*, wordpress_sec_*	PROVETSA	Technical	Authentication and security of registered users who log in to the website's management area.	Deactivated when the website is closed (or remains active for up to 14 days if the registered user selects the option to remember the session).
wp-settings-, wp-settings-time-	PROVETSA	Technical	Allows the website to remember the interface settings chosen by registered users.	Remains active for 1 year.
wp-wpml_current_language	PROVETSA	Technical	Allows the website to remember the browsing language chosen by the user.	Deactivated when the website is closed.
pv_cookie_consent	PROVETSA	Technical	Remembers the cookie consent selection expressed by the user in the banner or in the cookie configurator.	Remains active for 12 months.

Analytics cookies (require your consent)

In addition to the technical cookies listed above, this website uses Google Analytics (Google LLC) analytics cookies, which are only installed if you give your express consent via the cookie banner or the cookie settings panel. These cookies provide anonymous, aggregated statistical information about the use of the website (number of visits, most visited pages, time spent, etc.), in order to improve its functioning and content. If you reject these cookies, or later withdraw your consent, these cookies will not be installed or will be removed from your device.

Name	Who uses the cookies?	Type	Purposes	Duration
_ga	Google Analytics (Google LLC)	Analytics	Distinguishes users visiting the website in order to generate statistical data on its use.	2 years
ga<container-id>	Google Analytics (Google LLC)	Analytics	Stores session state to calculate visits and time spent on the website (Google Analytics 4).	2 years

Google LLC may transfer this information to third countries (United States), relying on the Standard Contractual Clauses approved by the European Commission as an adequate safeguard. You can consult Google's privacy policy at policies.google.com/privacy.

This website does not use behavioural advertising cookies or any other third-party cookies besides those indicated above. Should cookies of this type be added in the future, this cookie policy will be updated and the user's informed consent will be requested beforehand.

Processing of personal data through cookies shall be deemed to exist when the user has identified themselves through a name or an email address that identifies them, or when unique identifiers are used that make it possible to distinguish certain users from the rest and track them individually. For additional and detailed information about the user's rights and the processing of their personal data carried out through the cookies on this website, you can consult the privacy policy here.

Acceptance, rejection and configuration of cookies

As indicated in the previous section, you can give your consent to the use of all cookies on your device:

- By clicking the "Accept cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking the "Accept all" button in the cookie configurator on this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy, or
- By selecting all the options provided and then clicking the "Save settings" button in the cookie configurator on this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

On the other hand, as indicated in the previous section, you can refuse your consent to the use of all the cookies mentioned on your device:

- By clicking the "Reject cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking the "Reject all" button in the cookie configurator on this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

Please note that if you accept third-party cookies, they must be deleted from the browser options or from the system offered by the third party itself for this purpose.

We remind you that you can delete your browsing history (including cookies) from your browser, by consulting the options and instructions provided by your browser.

You can choose at any time, from among the cookies mentioned, which cookies you allow and which cookies you reject for use on your device, and give your consent for this purpose. In the cookie configurator on this website you can enable the cookies you decide to allow on your device, or prevent the activation of those cookies you decide not to allow on your device, by selecting or deselecting them respectively and then clicking the "Save settings" button.

In addition, you can access additional information on how to enable, delete and/or manage the use of cookies through the corresponding browser, as indicated below:
